Presidential Debate Round 1

Question #1

In general, under what circumstances is it appropriate for governments local and federal to place restrictions on free speech?

Question #2

Do you feel that the Covid-19 pandemic was handled correctly on a national level? If elected as President, what plans would you set in place against future contagious outbreaks?

Question #3

Do you believe that gun control laws in America are too permissive, too strict, or just right? What, if any, gun policy changes would you push for?

Question #4

Do you believe the fourteenth amendment should be interpreted to mean that children of illegal immigrants born within the united states be granted automatic U.S. citizenship?

Question #5

In your view, what are the costs of continued sanctions against Russia? Do you feel that the American people should be asked to bear those costs?

Question #6

Does America have a systemic problem with its policing and criminal justice systems? How would you improve the state of these systems?

Question #7

Presidential Debate Round 2

Question #1

Should affirmative action be used in hiring and/or college admissions?

Question #2

Americans are more divided than ever in the sources of news media they consume. What could you do as President to increase trust in our news media?

Question #3

Campus speech codes are a relatively unpopular attempt by public universities to balance free speech with a safe learning environment. How do you think that Universities can best balance those concerns?

Question #4

Should the death penalty be considered "cruel and unusual punishment"?

Question #5

Some political pundits have argued that giving Supreme Court Justices a limited term would make battles of Supreme Court nominations less acrimonious and overall would be a benefit to the nation. Do you agree with this position?

Question #6

If religious practice comes into conflict with local, state, or federal law (for example in cases of religious drug use, practice of religious rites in prisons, etc.) what principles should guide when such religious practices are or are not protected by the first amendment?

Question #7

Presidential Debate Round 3

Question #1

What do you think is the greatest potential threat to the stability of the United States?

Question #2

President Biden's recent nomination of a woman of color to the Supreme Court, as promised during electoral debates, has raised questions of whether or not a justice should be initially selected based on their demographics. As president, how would you choose nominees for the Supreme Court?

Question #3

What do you feel are the most significant cultural consequences of the Covid-19 pandemic? How would you begin to repair the social and individual upheaval the American people have sustained since March 2020?

Question #4

What federal regulations on abortion should exist?

Question #5

According to data from the 2020 census, the percentage of adults living with a spouse has decreased to 50%. As president, would you push for any family-related policy changes? How so?

Question #6

Do you believe that the second amendment guarantees Americans the right to own assault rifles?

Question #7

Question #8

Presidential Debate Quarterfinal

Question #1

Parents have increasingly made headlines as they've spoken out against school curricula including elements of critical race theory. What is the proper role of parents and the government in education, and what policies would you pursue to influence that?

Question #2

How do you think the U.S. can best balance the important concerns of religious freedom in the first amendment to the constitution with desires to protect people from identity based discrimination (for example, discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation)?

Question #3

Some localities in the United States have banned or curtailed the use of disposable plastics. Would you support a similar policy on a national level?

Question #4

Do you feel that additional measures are necessary to curb the spread of Covid-19? What, if any, measures would you take, if elected?

Question #5

Question #6

Question #7
